KIDSHINE'S PHILOSOPHY

KidShine is committed to helping develop self-confidence, creativity and character. One way this happens is by allowing camp participants to choose what they want to do in the final performance. Whether it's a speaking part, solo, dance, instrument, puppet, or scenery painting, we want each individual to experience the joy of using his/her gifts to the fullest. The atmosphere of the day camp is fun, high-energy and encouraging, and the experience ends in a final performance on Friday evening that is truly amazing.
